

My family

Bondoc Family
at Manila
Temple

- All of us are member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints
- Me, my brother, and my dad served our missions.
- We love going to the temple.

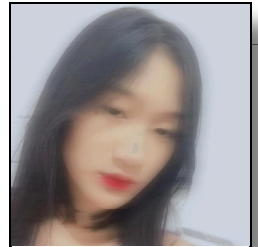

This is my dad.
He is a very friendly and kind person. He always love to serve other people as he work. He served his mission in the Philippines Manila Mission. He is currently serving at our stake as a stake high council member. He always gives everything we need

This is my mom.
She is a very hardworking mother. She goes to work in the morning, and helps us at the house in the evening. Everything that I could ask, she will give her best to give it. She didn't serve a mission, but she is currently serving in the relief society presidency for our ward. I love my mom.

This is my older brother. Me and my brother are opposites. He loves to cosplay and watch anime, I love to play sports and go outside. He served his mission in the Philippines Cagayan De Oro Mission. He is very talented and hardworking as well. He loves serving the youth in our stake.

This is my younger sister. She is full of love and also she is very cute. She likes drawing, and loves playing the piano. She sometimes play video games as well using her smartphone. I always help
